

When we consider all that is happening around us today, we need to remember that God’s love and power are in no way diminished. With the psalmist, we can confidently say, “But God is my King!” (inspired by Our Daily Bread, Nov. 4, 2018)

As we continue to focus on God’s presence with us and His mighty power, we can be assured that He is still at work and saving those who call upon His name. One such person wrote:

Dear Indian Life Ministry,

I am so thankful for your faithfulness to God’s calling to and for the Indian people—and all whom Jesus loved/loves and died for—I am truly blessed by your newspaper, personal letters, prayers and the books you’ve been able to send when you can...

I can’t send money, but I can pray and I can write and try to encourage you – as you do me...

If and when able, can you send me “When the Stars Danced”—I was so blessed by reading and re-reading and re-reading “Crying Wind/My Searching Heart.” Wow! What a writer and then again—what an amazing God and His amazing grace!

~ Thank you, CG

Here again, we see how the Lord has been ministering to people’s hearts through the literature He allows ILM to produce and publish and through the letters our prison ministry correspondents write! Thanks be to God for these precious folks.

I also thank and praise the Lord for each of you that has remembered ILM in your prayers and with your support these past couple of months. You have been such an encouragement and blessing! Every penny, every dollar has helped keep this ministry going through this challenging time.
